LOCAL BRIEFS—

The lovers of an imported cigar will find the article in one of Geo. Ziegler's elegant "La Africanas."

Wm. Simpson has received his fall stock of drugs, fancy articles, &c. He is polite, clever and pleasant to deal with.

"Prize Medal" is the name of a cigar highly prized by all who have tried it. Geo. Zieglar is the manufacturer.

The Fair grounds yesterday evening looked indeed deserted—almost everything had been moved away, and the busy hours of the week had departed. And now the grounds will have a quiet for another twelve months.

R. H. Weathers, opposite Sam Haywood's shop, Wilmington street, advertises to have the cheapest groceries, the best N. C. Corn and Rye whiskey, Southampton and Apple Brandy and sweet cider.

Dealers who wish to keep in stock the most popular brands of cigars, should not fail to keep a plentiful supply of Geo. Ziegler's celebrated brands. They are reliable, saleable and sold at low prices.

Royster's candy factory presents a very attractive appearance to the lovers of the luxury. Dealers while in Raleigh should not omit to call, sample and price at Royster's stand, Fayetteville street.

The Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine was successful this week in carrying off the gold medal for the best sewing machines with most useful attachments. There were seven competitors.

The general favorite is esteemed to be Geo. Zieglers "Raleigh Favorite," a most genial companion to all who indulge in a good smoke. The name is so popular, we need hardly mention that it is manufactured by Geo. Ziegler. All dealers have them in stock.

Look on Martin street, the headquarters of the NEWS office. It is a thronged mart. Cotton now crowds it to the extent of making passage way uncomfortable. Yet the way to the NEWS building is always accessible, and our friends are always acceptable and entertainable. Come along.

THE FACT DISCOVERED.—That the best job work in the State can be done at the NEWS job office, No 6 Martin street. Our friends continue to send work from every quarter, and what is more pleasant to us, we give general satisfaction.

HIGHLY ACCEPTABLE.—We are indebted to Mr. L. Ives, of Beaufort, for a splendid salmon trout, a six-pounder, sent us Friday night through Mr. E. W. Watson, of the city market. We can assure him that it was highly enjoyed.

PEPPER AND VEINSON.—Yesterday Pepper came before the public in a new treat—a supply of venison from Southampton, Va. Looking over his stock of delicacies, we were never more struck with its richness. Pepper is always up to the time in everything that is good.

THE GRANGE PREMIUM.—The premium of $100 and a dump cart for the best exhibition from any State Grange was awarded by the State Fair last week to the Hillsboro Grange, represented by James Norwood, Esq. Mr. Norwood is one of the greatest friends to the Fairs of the State to be found in North Carolina.

J. C. Brewster received the only premium given to any one in his line of business; having received also several diplomas. Some of his goods could not be competed with, as there was none there like them. His House Keeper Range, in particular, was without a competitor. He has always led the market in this line, and intends to always keep the best assortment of stoves and house furnishing goods.

THE PREMIUM LIST.—We are informed at the office of the Secretary of the State Fair that the premium list of the Fair which closed last night will be arranged at once, will be revised by the Executive Committee on Thursday next and will then be published at once. We believe quite general satisfaction has been given this year in the distribution of the premiums—at least, we have heard no complaints, which speaks well for the work of the different awarding committees.

THE RALEIGH MARKET.—The best building in the State is devoted to the good things of this life. Raleigh can now claim to have the best house for the exhibition of eatables. The State recognizes this fact, and from all sides, from the sea-shore to the mountains, each day pours in a lavish stream of contribution. The fattest beef, the most succulent mutton, the freshest and juiciest fish, met the eye of the purchaser. And vegetables and fruits of all description tantalize the eye and tempt the purse. Go through the market if you want to know what is to be seen and get what is to be had.

A VALUABLE PICTURE.—We have received from Shelburn, the Photographist, his picture of the Convention. It is superb. Looking over the faces, we recognize them all so distinctly that they come out as old, familiar friends. Rarely have we seen anything as good, and rarely has a group been as valuable. The Convention of 1875 has done noble service. Like that of 1835, it goes down to posterity as the perpetrator of a great deed. More fortunate than that of 1835, it had Shelburn to perpetuate its participants and actors.

We commend with all praise the picture to the patronage of the public.

MESSRS. WINDER AND WILEY.—In closing our notices of the State Fair of last week, we feel we would be doing injustice in failing to give special credit to the efficiency and energy of the Secretary and the Treasurer of the Society, as through their immediate agency has the success of this year to a great extent been attained, and the great satisfaction that has been given to both exhibitors and visitors is alike due to the ease and agreeable manner with which they have acted.

In 1874 Major John C. Winder was made Secretary and Superintendent, and without any experience in his work, has worked with such earnestness as to merit the approbation of the Society and the hearty approval of the President and his Executive Committee. We congratulate the Society upon his re-election.

At the reorganization of the Society in 1872 Mr. P. A. Wiley was elected Treasurer, and has since been re-elected annually by acclamation. With only a small salary, during 1873, the trying days of the Society, when, with limited means and insufficient support, the new grounds of the Society were being arranged at a cost of more than $50,000, Mr. Wiley was always found equal to the emergency, and by his advice and often real assistance enabled the Committee in the fall of that year to complete one of the most handsome Fair Grounds in the South and to have the most successful exhibition ever given in the State. Mr. Wiley has reduced the affairs of his office to a science, and no mistakes are ever made.

In Messrs. Winder and Wiley the State Society have two efficient officers, gentlemen that cannot fail to give entire satisfaction to the friends of the State Agricultural Society.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY AND IMMIGRATION.—At the meeting of the State Agricultural Society Thursday night Col. L. L. Polk introduced the following resolution:

"Resolved, that it behooves this society to inaugurate such measures as may have the greatest tendency to encourage immigration to our State."

The resolution elicited a highly interesting discussion participated in by Col. Polk, Dr. McCallum, Mr. McKeon, Col. Heck, Kemp P. Battle, Gen. Cox, Mr. Tate and others. The resolution was finally referred to a committee composed of Kemp P. Battle, Dr. McCallum, Col. Polk, Gen. Clingman and Major Blount, with instruction to report Friday night.

We are glad to see this subject eliciting the attention of our business men and manufacturers, and hope some good results therefrom.

On Friday night Gen. Clingman, in behalf of the Committee on immigration, presented this report:

WHEREAS, The State of North Carolina, with a territory larger than either of the States of New York or Pennsylvania, a climate favorable and pre-eminently healthy; soil generally fertile and abundant water power; with a great variety of useful minerals; with the best timber trees, and in as great abundance and variety as can be found in any territory of equal extent in the world; has comparatively a sparse population; And whereas, the population of North Carolina is peaceful and orderly, and her system of government well regulated; And whereas, she only lacks population and capital to make her a great State; therefore

Resolved, That we, the members of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, do extend a cordial invitation to all emigrants, from the old country or the new, who may be inclined to make their home among us, and do pledge them the fullest protection of person and property under an equal and just system of laws, and assure them that they will be most kindly welcomed by the citizens of the State.

These resolutions were advocated at some length, in a most happy manner, by Messrs. Mills, Clingman, Kemp P. Battle, Gov. Brogden, W. R. Cox, and others, and adopted without a dissent.

HARP'S EXHIBITION.—We have alluded in general terms to the exhibition made in mechanics' hall last week at the State Fair by Mr. N. S. Harp, of this city, in the way of carriages, buggies, &c., of his own manufacture, but it gives us pleasure to speak more particularly of this home establishment and to chronicle the fact that he obtained the premium on everything he exhibited. His extensive top phaeton obtained the first premium, as did his physician's phaeton two open buggies and a truck wagon, and a premium and diploma were awarded him for the finest display of carriages.

Indeed, Mr. Harp, in his extensive works in this city has drawn around him not only good workmen but uses nothing but the best material and will turn out nothing from his shops that is not good, and those wanting carriages, buggies or anything in his line need go no further North, as both in price and quality he can equal the best house in the country.

We are pleased to see these home productions coming to the front at our annual agricultural exhibitions, and hope the day is not distant when there will be no necessity to go elsewhere for the obtaining of any of the necessaries or luxuries wanted for our real comfort.

In Mr. Harp we recognize a man of energy, enterprise and real merit, and we cheerfully commend his goods to the public.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS OF THE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—Owing to the crowded condition of our columns in endeavoring to give the details of the State Fair last week and to keep up with other matters of general interest, we were prevented from giving the nightly proceedings of the Society. The following concerning the election of officers Thursday night we copy from the Sentinel:

"The election of officers being in order, Capt. J. R. Thigpen, in a brief but lofty tribute to his ability, energy and success in the management of the important affairs entrusted to him, nominated Col. Thos. M. Holt, for re-election to the presidency of the society. On motion, the rules were suspended, and Col. Holt was unanimously re-elected. A committee, consisting of Dr P. E. Hines, Col. L. L. Polk and W. G. Upchurch, conducted the President to the chair, when he briefly and appropriately returned his thanks to the society for so gratifying a manifestation of their approbation of his efforts.

Dr. Hines nominated Major John C. Winder, the president efficient secretary and superintendent, as his own successor, and he was re-elected by acclamation.

"Major R. C. Badger nominated P. A. Wiley, who has so long and faithfully discharged the duties of treasurer of the society and his re-election was without a dissenting voice.

"On motion of Major R. C. Badger the meeting elected these six gentlemen vice-presidents: Dr. Columbus Mills, of Cabarrus county, Dr. W. J. Hawkins, of Warren; James W. Norwood of Orange; J. M. Heck, of Wake; W. S. Battle, of Edgecombe; Gov. C. H. Brogden, of Wayne. All the ex-presidents are denominated "permanent vice-presidents."

THE CITIZENS' MEETING TO-MORROW NIGHT.—The citizens will meet at Metropolitan Hall to-morrow night to consider the debt of the city. Let every one who feels an interest in this important question attend.

MEETING OF THE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY FRIDAY NIGHT.—The meeting of the Society Friday night was of a most interesting character, being replete with good speeches and much good sound argument. Soon after the opening of the meeting Senator Bayard, of Delaware, accompanied by Senator Ransom and other gentlemen, entered the room, when the gentlemen were invited to seats in the hall. Gen. Clingman, in a few warm words of welcome, introduced Mr. Bayard to the Society.

We copy from the Sentinel of yesterday evening an account of Mr. Bayard's remarks and Senator Ransom's reply:

Mr. Bayard rose and in conversation tones a little tremulous with feeling, said he did not feel himself a stranger in North Carolina or among North Carolinians. His heart had been too often touched with the same wrongs and sufferings which they had endured, he had felt their woes too deeply to be a stranger to them. He was a member of the committee of investigation, as it was called appointed by Congress in 1870, to pry into the private affairs of the sovereign state of North Carolina. The committee was appointed for unfriendly inquisitorial and unconstitutional purposes; and as the only Democrat upon it, he had stood between the people of North Carolina and those who sought to malign the fair name and fame of a noble State. He had been taught from his childhood to look upon the people of North Carolina as a simple hearted, brave and honorable race. He knew them to be an agricultural people, producers and not mere consumers; and there was no class in the state to whom he would rather speak than its representative agriculturists. To this class the country must look for bread; to them, it must in a great measure, look for political reformation. He closed with an eloquently expressed hope that in the future of prosperity and happiness which surely lies ahead of North Carolina, there might never come anything to interfere with the feelings of friendship and common brotherhood which he cherished for the gentlemen before him and for all the good people of their proud State. The speech was received with repeated outbursts of applause.

On motion of Capt. Thigpen, General Matt. Ransom was called on to respond, which he did in a vein of mingled pathos and humor that brought down the house time and again, in vigorous demonstrations of approval. He said he had the reputation of being too accommodating; but that he really thought it was more than he could do or be expected to do, to attempt a speech. But he had to-day done for Mr. Bayard what he had never done for his wife—missed a $500 race to meet him; and he should be false to himself and to his every feeling, if he did not take to his heart and the heart of his State, the illustrious gentleman who somewhat unexpectedly their guest. The presence to-night of the patriot senator from Delaware beneath the dome of North Carolina's capitol, calls up a hundred years of glorious memories and associations. It tells of a grand union of sovereign States restored. He thanked Mr. Bayard for coming among us; he only wished that all the people of the great north could come, and learn that we are brethren. If they should come, they would like our people better the more they knew of them. He had convinced his Delaware friend today that North Carolina apple-brandy was as good as any he had ever found in Delaware or Jersey, and he would find on acquaintance that our people are just as good as their brandy. He closed by assuring the gentlemen of the society that, while such men as the Bayards live, the republic and liberty will live, the glory of our country will be secure.

Col. I. J. Young introduced a resolution favoring the appointment by the president of the society, of one of the committeemen from each Congressional district and three from the city of Raleigh, to solicit contributions for centennial purposes.

Gen. Ransom introduced a substitute leaving the whole matter in the hands of the executive committee of the agricultural society.

Gen. Clingman thought both original and substitute ought to be adopted, as both were good.

After some harmonious discussion, Col. Heck introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the executive committee of the State Agricultural Society be instructed to aid His Excellency, the Governor, as far as practicable in securing proper representation of the products and resources of North Carolina at the Centennial Exposition to be held in Philadelphia, A. D. 1876.

Several essays were read, one by Mr. D. W. Kerr, of Alamance, on "Beef Raising and Butter Making," one on "Grass Culture," by James Norwood, of Orange, "Grape Culture in North Carolina," by J. Pagenstecher, of Shelby; and "The Scuppernong Grape," by H. T. Guion, of Craven.

Mr. Wiley moved that the thanks of the society be extended to all these gentlemen, and that their essays be printed in the Agricultural Journal. Adopted.

A discussion arose on the subject of Wine; the participants being Mr. Wiley, Gen. Clingman, Capt. Denison and Dr. P. E. Hines.

Mr. Wiley moved that the thanks of the society be handed to Messrs. Arrington, Hoke and Hicks, and to the gentlemen from a distance who have shown so much interest and taken so active a part in promoting the success of the Fair. Adopted.

Geo. Ziegler's beautiful little cigar store is placed immediately adjoining the Yarboro House. He affords Dr. Blacknall's guests a great luxury in his large and well selected stock of choice cigars, smoking and chewing tobacco.

Harry Watkins will bring the Holman Troupe to this city in November. They will play throughout the South under the management of Mr. Watkins.

Newspaper advertising is now recognized by business men having faith in their own wares, as the most effective means for securing for their goods a wide recognition of their merits.

THE HARRY WATKINS TROUPE gave their last performance in this city, for the present, last night. "The Child of the Regiment" is a rarely excellent play, and the farce, "It Takes Two to Quarrel," was one of the most laughable things we have ever seen. Our want of space forbids us saying more.

DELEGATES TO THE PETERSBURG FAIR.—President Holt, of the State Agricultural Society, has appointed the following gentlemen as delegates to the Petersburg Fair, which opens on Monday: Hon. Matt W. Ransom, Col. Jno. L. Bridgers, and Messrs. R. G. Dunn, John B. Grudup, R. H. Jones and G. B. Fairchild.

AN EXCELLENT MACHINE.—Among the articles on exhibition in Mechanics Hall worth particular notice was the Little Monitor Fanning Mill and Feed Separator, manufactured and exhibited by Mr. Tate, of Greensboro. This machine cleaned the wheat perfectly and separated the large perfect grains for seed wheat from the small and broken grains, delivering each in a separate box, and throwing the refuse of chaff, onions, cockle, oats, etc., in the rear. It also separates clover and timothy seed, delivering each in a separate box. This machine will be a blessing to the wheat raisers of North Carolina, if they will only use it, and now is the time.

MOVEMENTS OF COTTON IN RALEIGH.—Reicepts for week ending Oct. 16, 1875, 2,115 bales; same for corresponding time in 1874, 1,319 bales. Increase in receipts for week this year, 796 bales; whole receipts since Sept. 1st, 9,162 bales; receipts for same time last year, 5,054 bales; showing increase in receipts this year to date, 5,954 bales. The large increase is very gratifying and plainly indicated the growing importance of our city as a cotton market. There has been much excitement and activity in the market all the week, and price advanced to 13¾c., but closed weak at 13¼c. The weather continues favorable for picking, and unless we have very heavy frosts followed by wet weather, we may expect a full yield to the labors of our farmers.

GREAT DEMONSTRATION.—During the stay of Senator Bayard in this city most of the leading citizens called upon him at the Yarborough. Shortly before seven o'clock a large concourse of people assembled in front of the hotel with a band of music; Fayetteville street was illuminated with bonfires. Mayor Manly, in a few eloquent remarks, introduced the distinguished Senator, who spoke with unusual effect for over half an hour. He expressed his great pleasure in being in North Carolina, though his presence here was accidental. His visit had no party ends; he had been treated here with gratifying kindness by gentlemen of both parties. He felt that he was a friend to all the people of the State, and had but one end in view in addressing them, which was the common good of the people of North Carolina and of the entire Union. While he would not discuss political questions, he still would, here and everywhere, implore the people to discard all party trickery as the politics of the country, and to believe that there was such a thing as duty to country which was next to duty to God; that patriotism was a virtue which ought to be cherished like devotion to wife and children. He counselled with great earnestness good will between the sections as essential to the happiness of the American people and the perpetuity of our institutions. He hoped for a united South, not for Southern preponderance, but to secure the first life-principle of the Union, the equality of all the States. He eloquently insisted that the South was the peer of the North, that her history vindicated this truth. He boldly denounced what was falsely called independence in politics, and declared that great results could only be accomplished by the combined action of good men. He said honesty, simple truth, must be followed in politics. He made touching allusions to the historic memories of Delaware and North Carolina, and spoke of the great part the South had taken in the formation of the government and in its administration afterwards. His remarks, which have been imperfectly condensed, were received with great enthusiasm and he was frequently interrupted with cheers. After the conclusion of the speech he was escorted to the depot by the Raleigh Light Infantry and the Light Artillery.

Within the limits of our broad land there is no man whose visit could have given more unalloyed satisfaction to our people, than the unselfish patriot Senator from Delaware, Thomas F. Bayard.

Geo. Zieglar's "Flor del Fumars" are well tasted, well filled and free smokers.

The genuine Lynn Haven Bay oysters on the half shell at Tim Lee's saloon this and every other day of the season.

We have inadvertantly failed to notice the grand hop at the National Hotel Friday night. It was one of the most elegant affairs we have ever seen in this city.

Newspaper advertising is the most energetic and vigilant of salesmen, addresses thousands each day, always in the advertiser's interest, and ceaselessly at work seeking customers from all classes.

Dr. S. DeBoit, the celebrated chiropolist is in the city and quartered at the National Hotel. He is said to be the most successful physician on diseases of the feet that ever visited this section.

MESSRS. H. M. SMITH & CO.—We inadvertantly omitted, in writing up the machinery department at the Fair last week, to mention the splendid exhibition of machinery made by Messrs. H. M. Smith & Co., of Richmond, Va. This firm is intimately associated with North Carolina in its business connections, and we can truthfully recommend their machinery to the North Carolina public.

ADVERTISING COMMENDED.—Mr. Orange Judd, proprietor of the American Agriculturist, gives in the Tribune a graphic account of the success which followed the insertion in that paper twenty years ago of an advertisement which, when printed, to his great alarm occupied 196 lines instead of 40 as he intended. His fright, however, was quieted by the reception of 226 subscribers coming directly from that advertisement. Since then, he has spent about half a million dollars in advertising, and says, "From that day to this, I have never been afraid to advertise largely and boldly—the only limit being the time I could devote to preparing good, truthful advertisements, and to selecting good mediums—the latter a work of no little difficulty. My success in business has been abundantly satisfactory to myself, and, I trust, to my patrons also."

THE PROPER LENGTH OF SERMONS.—A discussion is going on in the religious newspapers as to the proper length of sermons. The Boston Congregationalist publishes a number of communications upon the subject, which give various opinions. Most of the writers seem to think that thirty minutes is the standard length for sermons under ordinary circumstances. One writer approves of forty minutes for the morning sermon, less for the afternoon, and an hour for such startling occasions as the taking of Richmond, Va., during the late war, or the assassination of a Lincoln. Allowance is to be made for the weather, and preachers must be merciful to hearers in danger of freezing or roasting. Account must be taken also of the preacher's gifts of speaking. An off-hand sermon, alive with spirit and full of apt illustrations, will win attention forty or fifty minutes from an assembly who will nod over a dull homily of twenty minutes. Reference is made to the length of the whole service, and it is said that seventy-five minutes is long enough to keep people together at one time. In reply to the remark that there are no conversions after thirty minutes, the Christian Register smartly says that conversion is not the aim of all preaching, but that instruction belongs to the pulpit, and instruction often requires time and patience. Some men, and we believe that Rev. Dr. Bushnell is one of the number, have said that they cannot "turn around," in less than forty minutes. So it is impossible to fix a uniform rule.

THE AMERICAN DUEL IN PARIS.—The report of the duel in Paris on Monday between two Americans named Riggs and Paine, grew out of a difficulty of six months standing. Riggs is a son of Elisha Riggs, and Paine a son of William Paine, both of New York. Young Riggs was President of the Washington Club, in Paris, of which Paine was a member. It is claimed that the latter did not pay his losses at cards with promptness, and in consequence one evening some months ago, Riggs refused to sit at the same table with him. As may be expected, this greatly unnerved Paine, but he did not permit himself at that time to be drawn to the commission of any overt act. He withdrew from the room and awaited Riggs down stairs. When the latter descended he was slapped in the face by Paine. For this offence Paine was expelled from the club, and the duel reported Tuesday morning is undoubtedly the outcome of that night's difficulty.

POISONED STOCKINGS.—The recent introduction and extended use of colored or striped stockings, and the evil effects experienced by the wearers of them, have served to direct the attention of the physician and analyst to the question of the dyes used in coloring them. The Pall Mall Gazette, in noticing the evil effects of wearing colored hose, cites several instances where the first symptoms were intense irritation of the skin of the feet, swelling, and an inflamed appearance, then an outbreak of watery blisters of all sizes, from groups of the size of hemp seed to single blisters on the side of the foot larger than a five shilling piece. This condition was accompanied by general feverishness, rigors, loss of appetite, and a sensation of pervading malaise. In a severe attack the patient was rarely able to walk for three weeks, and after one attack passed off it was often followed by another of a milder type. In one case a gentleman was obliged to wear cloth shoes for upwards of eight months, and with other patients the system had been so impregnated with the poison that blisters have reappeared at intervals, not only on the feet, but on the hands, ears, etc., for more than three years. There was no doubt as to the cause and method of this blood poisoning, for the blisters first came in stripes corresponding to the colored stripes on the stockings, and the inundresses complained of the irritation and inflamed condition of their hands after washing these poisonous articles.

A movement has been started to form one national government out of the States of Nicaragua, Guatemala, Salvador, Costa Rica and Honduras. A compact has been signed for that purpose by the three first named States, and efforts are making to bring the latter into the same line. What fruits will flow from this planting cannot be told at this time. There always have been jealousies between these States which have prevented them from acting in full concert and thus securing their rights both at home and abroad. In Honduras English influence has been potential. English capital has been poured into that country and thus Honduras is prevented from acting with her sister States. If she agrees to the present movement there are good reasons for concluding that England has a hand in the matter. As there is a reasonable certainty that the ocean ship canal will be constructed at no distant day, England may feel the necessity of having a foothold near that great roadway of nations and thus controlling its policy to the fullest possible extent. Such a confederation as that proposed, if free from all foreign complications and interference, would dictate the policy of the waist portion of the New World, and hence its importance in that shape and no other. The Congress of the five States that met at La Union, in 1872, failed to bring about a confederation, and there are no reasonable hopes that a different result will be reached at present.—Phil. Times.

GEN. JOSEPH E. JOHNSON.—Gen. Johnson friends (and who is not his friend?) will be very sure to call on him when they wish insurance. They have trusted him before in far more weighty matters and never were deceived, and they will trust to his word as the best insurance to be offered now. He represents a company now in no respect the inferior of the best, and his friends for his sake and the interest he has in that company will make it their favorite, No company that would treat him badly need expect favors of the South, who idolize him as the greatest living Confederate. Certainly no better company can be found than the Home Insurance Company of New York.—Savannah Sunday Telegram.

THE MAINTENANCE OF HEALTH.—The maintenance of health is often more difficult than its recovery. Unhealthy conditions of the atmosphere, unhealthy occupations, extremes of the heat or cold, and constant exposure to rough weather, are all so many provocatives of disease. There is but one sure way of effectually guarding the system when thus subjected to influence prejudicial to health, and that is to establish, by judicious tonic and alterative medication, vigor of the body and regularity of its functions. The properties of an invigorant and corrective are happily combined in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, at the same time that it infuses unwonted vitality into the system, overcomes all tendency of the stomach, liver, bowels and urinary organs to deviate from regularity in the discharge of functions upon which the welfare of the entire physical organization is dependent. Health cannot be more efficiently maintained than by using the Bitters.

Notice to Correspondents.

No letter can be published in these columns which is not authenticated by the name of its author. This we require, not for publication, but as a guarantee of the good faith of correspondents. Persons who violate this rule will have their communications consigned to the waste-basket.

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the cheapest paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

MR. SAM BARD, the editor of the Alabama State Journal, is becoming even unnaturally demonstrative in his advocacy of a third term. He is fully convinced that "as the voice of the people is the voice of God, President Grant will be forced to accede the popular will and allow the use of his name as the means of saving the country from bankruptcy, repudiation and ruin."

A RATHER curious reason is given for the suspension of the Baltimore Evening Times—a journal started under very fair auspices a few weeks ago. The editor-in-chief says that in the outset, when no division existed in the party ranks, all the editors were in accord. At present, however, they differ so irreconcilably in opinion that "it is judged best to suspend the paper until a new and more harmonious organization can be effected."

A TELEGRAM received Friday night from Mississippi indicates that Gov. Ames has caved in. In other words, that he recognizes the fact that his State is not in rebellion. Why should Mississippi or any Southern State be placed in that attitude? Has it come to this, that defence of life should be construed into hostility to a government. But the Government does not so look upon it and we dismiss Gov. Ames with the contempt that we have previously expressed for him.

UNDER the sanction of the Bishop of Toulouse a pamphlet has been issued and extensively circulated through France on Freemasonry, in which the author declares that the Free Masons are possessed of a Satanic secret; that they perform a mockery of the mass on an altar lighted by six candles, that every member, after spitting on the crucifix, tramples it beneath his feet, and that at the conclusion of the ceremony every one ascends the altar and strikes the holy sacrament with a poinard.

IT SEEMS likely that there will be more serious trouble with the Mormons. A telegram says that "in the District court at Salt Lake, Utah, Wednesday, Judge Boreman delivered a strong charge to the grand jury in opposition to polygamy or bigamy in regard to the law of Congress of 1862, which provides for the punishment of this offense. He called upon the jury to indict all persons living in polygamy, and said it depends upon grand juries whether the laws shall be enforced or not, or whether Congress shall be called upon to give better laws."

THE irrepressible Chinaman has asserted himself famously in the Sandwich Islands. Some of the planters there, believing that cheap Chinese labor would be an improvement upon that of the Kansas, imported a lot of coolies; but many of these, after working a while, managed to save enough money to set up for themselves, and now they are competing in all kinds of business with their old masters. It is said there are from 4,000 to 5,000 Chinamen in the islands, and that they have not only almost monopolized the retail trade, but some of them do an extensive business as merchants and planters. They marry and intermarry with the natives, and the handsomest half-caste woman in Honolulu is the wife of a prosperous Chinese merchant.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is fast taking the place of all the old-fashioned cough remedies. It never fails to relieve the most violent cold, and for throat disease it is invaluable. Price, 25 cents.

THE BINGHAM SCHOOL.

In our local columns a good deal has been said of the Bingham School. In the formal exposition of our editorial opinion we retract nothing.

Hereditary talent is worth something. People come to rely upon what has been established by reputation. It looks back to the dark ages of our educational lights, and you will find the Bingham family holding out the torches to lead the benighted crowd out of darkness. The torch has been held aloft by son and grand-son, and beams now with distinguished brilliancy. Col. Bingham comes forward as the bright precentor of a coming future.

WE see it stated, says the Richmond Whig, that a subscription has been started to raise a fund for a monument to "American Girl," the famous trotting mare, and that liberal amounts, in some cases as high as fifty dollars have been contributed. This is really a sad mockery of the high moral sentiment that moves men to erect monuments to the memories of those of their fellowmen who have been illustrious in life. And if dead horses are to be thus honored it is getting time for dead men to be left to history and tradition alone.

"American Girl" was a fast trotter certainly, and she died in harness doing her "level best" to the last; but we can hardly think she is entitled to a monument of marble or of brass, or that any other horses hereafter would be encouraged to emulate her example with the hope of being similarly immortalized.

THE following table will show the results of the grand political contests in Ohio since the war. It is interesting reading just at this time:

	Rep.	Dem.	Total
1861—President,	264,918	205,956	470,876
1867—Governor,	248,605	240,842	489,447
1868—President,	280,232	239,032	519,264
1869—Governor,	238,892	228,581	464,663
1871—Governor,	247,573	218,105	465,678
1872—Sec. of State,	265,960	251,780	517,740
1872—President,	281,852	244,321	526,173
1873—Governor,	213,737	214,654	428,391
1875—Sec. of State,	221,204	238,406	459,610

So it will be seen that Allen's majority in 1873 was only 817, and that with the exception of this vote and that for the Secretary of State the present year, the State has always gone Republican. It is said the largest vote has been polled this year that has ever been cast in the State.

THE New York Sun (hard-money paper) thus speaks of the defeat of the "rag-money" issue in Ohio: "Now that inflation is dead and buried, the party of reform can move on unimpeded to the victory it is bound to achieve. The rag-money delusion has handicapped the simple issue of the purification of politics, State and national; and that once thrown off, we can all march on with springing step to the overthrow of Grantism and the rescue of the Government from the thieves who use office and power to line their pockets and defraud the people.

"The noise of inflation is now silenced, and the great work of reforming the Government and putting down official stealing can go on.

"The work must be carried through, or the country will not long be worth living in.

"The Ohio diversion being over, every patriot can lay hold in earnest and do his duty in the crusade for administrative reform.

"The revolution begun in 1872 and continued in 1873 and 1874 will be completed."

BLACKSBURG.

*T*his famous Institution is in Virginia. It is conducted for the benefit of the farmer and is endowed by the liberality of the General Government. Virginia was wise in accepting the appropriation and using it so judiciously. And the fruits of her wisdom are showing themselves in the increased enlightenment of the farmer. *W*ho denies that the farmer is entitled to education, or that farming itself is not an intellectual occupation? The day has passed when mere muscular force was thought the sole requisite of the farmer. He now takes rank as an intellectual worker, bringing to his task brain, thought, calculation.

This the school at Blacksburg trains him in. And it is conducted in such a way that it brings the farmer up to a recognition of his true position. He cannot forget it, when he is led by such men as Ruffner and Lane.

This Institution was represented at the late State Fair by Col. Elsey, and we take pleasure in naming him among the distinguished Virginians who have honored the North Carolina State Fair with their presence.

Russian railroad managers are experimenting with the electric light as a headlight for locomotives. Successful results were obtained on the line from Moscow to Kursk. The apparatus consisted of a battery connected with the front axle, the revolution of which set it in operation, and the track was illuminated a distance of 1,800 feet.

ORDINANCES

Passed by the North Carolina Constitutional Convention of 1875.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ORDINANCE TO SUBMIT TO THE PEOPLE THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION ADOPTED BY THIS CONVENTION.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That the amendments to the Constitution of this State, adopted by this Convention at any time during its session, shall be submitted to the people for ratification or rejection, as a whole, at the general election to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six. That every person entitled to vote under the existing Constitution and laws of this State, shall be entitled to vote for the ratification or rejection of said amendments; those who wish a ratification of the amendments voting with a printed or written ticket, "Ratification," those of a contrary opinion, "Rejection." That said election shall be held, and said qualified electors shall vote, at the usual places of voting in the several counties of this State; and that said election shall be conducted under the same rules and regulations, and under the same pains and penalties as are now required and prescribed by law, and returns thereof made, according to the laws now in force regulating the election of members of the General Assembly.

SEC. 2. That the returns of the whole vote cast for the ratification and for the rejection of said amendments, shall be made by the sheriffs of the several counties of the State to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State, at Raleigh, within thirty days after the election: Provided, That if the office of Chief Justice shall become vacant by death, resignation or otherwise, the said returns shall in like manner be made to the Attorney General of the State; and the returns of said votes shall, within ten days thereafter, be examined and canvassed by the said Chief Justice, or Attorney General in case of the vacancy in the said office of Chief Justice in the presence of the Governor, and proclamation shall be made by the Governor forthwith of the result of the canvass.

SEC. 3. That if, upon such canvass, it shall appear that a majority of the votes polled were in favor of the ratification of the amendments, then the said amendments to the Constitution shall constitute a part of the Constitution of the State, and shall take effect as such on the first day of January, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven; and thereupon the Governor shall cause to be endorsed on said amendments, as enrolled by this Convention, a certificate under his signature declaring that the said amendments have been ratified by the people of North Carolina. The Secretary of State shall countersign the said certificate and annex thereto the great seal of the State, and the said amendments so enrolled, with the certificates aforesaid, shall be forever kept among the archives of the State, in the office of the Secretary of State aforesaid.

SEC. 4. That said amendments to the Constitution, after being duly enrolled and properly authenticated, shall be deposited by the Secretary of the Convention in the office of the Secretary of State for safe keeping, and shall be, by order of the Governor and Secretary of State, published for six months in two papers, one of each political party in each Congressional District of the State, immediately preceding the day of election aforesaid*.

SEC. 5. This ordinance shall be in force from and after the day of its ratification.

Read and ratified in open Convention, this 30th day of September, 1875.

*This section was abrogated. See next ordinance.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE ORDINANCE SUBMITTING THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION TO THE PEOPLE.

The people of North Carolina in Convention assembled do ordain, That the ordinance passed by this Convention and ratified on the thirtieth day of September, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, entitled "An ordinance to submit to the people the amendments to the Constitution, adopted by this Convention," be and the same is hereby so amended as to strike out and abrogate section four of said ordinance and insert and ordain in lieu thereof, as follows:

SECTION 4. The said amendments to the Constitution, after being duly enrolled and properly authenticated, shall be deposited by the Secretary of this Convention in the office of the Secretary of the State for safe keeping; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of this Convention and the Public Auditor to have printed, in pamphlet form, on or before the first day of January next, the said amendments, with the certificate of the Secretary of State annexed thereto, together with a copy of the Constitution, as it will read as proposed to be amended, one hundred thousand copies, of which one hundred copies shall be distributed to each delegate of this Convention, and the remainder among the counties of the State in proportion to population. And the necessary sum be and is hereby appropriated to pay the expense of said publication and distribution.

Read three times and ratified in open Convention, this 9th day of October, 1875.

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That section fourteen, article four, of the Constitution, shall read as follows:

That every Judge of the Superior Court shall reside in the district for which he is elected. The Judges shall preside in the Courts of the different districts successively, but no Judge shall hold the Courts in the same district oftener than once in four years, but in case of the protracted illness of the Judge assigned to preside in any district, or of any other unavoidable accident to him, by reason of which he shall become unable to preside, the Governor may require any Judge to hold one or more specified terms in said district, in lieu of the Judge assigned to hold the Courts of said district.

The people of North Carolina in Convention assembled do ordain: That section twelve, article four, of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

The State shall be divided into nine judicial districts for each of which a judge shall be chosen; and there shall be held a Superior Court in each county at least twice in each year, to continue for such time in each county as may be prescribed by law. But the General Assembly may reduce or increase the number of districts.

Read three times and ratified in open Convention, this 30th day of September, 1875.

The people of North Carolina in Convention assembled do ordain, That section two, article two, of the Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet biennially on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January next after their election; and when assembled, shall be denominated the General Assembly. Neither House shall proceed upon public business unless a majority of all the members are actually present.

Read three times and ratified in open Convention, this the 30th day of September, 1875.

Woman's Congress— Addresses by "Jennie June." Miss Strazey and Others.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 14.—The Woman's Congress was opened this morning by an address on "Women in Journalism," by Mrs. Crowly, (Jennie June,) of New York. The speaker came to the conclusion that men were utterly unfitted to do the highest duties of a journalist. Women alone had the qualities for such positions, and it would not be long before they would show it. Miss Strazey, of Boston, read the translation of a paper on "Women in Medicine."

The opinions of a French professor, who asserted against allowing women to engage in the medical profession, were answered in the paper, and to the effect that no danger to either sex would come from co-education; no more danger was to be apprehended in the dissecting room than in the ball-room or in the saloon. This evening an address was delivered by Mrs. Mary E. Livermore on "superfluous women."

She combatted the idea that unmarried women were superfluous members of society, and said that through all ages unmarried women had accomplished untold good and had elevated the race by their noble and unselfish work. All women, she declared, should be educated and fitted for some legitimate industrial pursuit. The audience this evening was the largest ever assembled in the Opera-house. Hundreds were unable to obtain admission.

Returns from Iowa show Republican victories in nearly every county and in most cases very considerable Republican gains. A large vote has been polled and the locals tickets are badly scratched in a number of places. Governor Kirkwood is elected by a large majority and the Legislative ticket will have an increased number of Republican members.

Common Sense vs. Prejudice,

By R. V. PIERCE, M. D., of the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y., Author of "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," etc., etc.

I am aware that there is a popular, and not altogether unfounded, prejudice against "patent medicines," owing to the small amount of merit which many of them possess. The application "Patent Medicines," does not apply to my remedies, as no patent has ever been asked for or obtained upon them, nor have they been urged upon the public as "cure-alls." They are simply some favorite prescriptions, which, in a very extensive practice have proved their superior remedial virtues in the cure of the diseases for which they are recommended. Every practicing physician has his favorite remedies which he oftenest recommends or uses, because he has the greatest confidence in their virtues. The patient does not know their composition. Even prescriptions are usually written in a language unintelligible to any but the druggist. As much secrecy is employed as in the preparation of proprietary medicines. Does the fact that an article is prepared by a process known only to the manufacturer render that article less valuable? How many physicians know the elementary composition of the remedies which they employ, some of which have never been analyzed? Few practitioners know how Morphine, Quinine, Podophyllin, Leptandrin, Pepsin, or Chloroform, are made, or how nauseous drugs are transformed into palatable elixtra; yet they do not hesitate to employ them. It is not inconsistent to use a prescription, the composition of which is unknown to us, and discard another preparation simply because it is accompanied by a printed statement of its properties with directions for its use?

Some persons, while, admitting that my medicines are good pharmaceutical compounds, object to them on the ground that they are too often used with insufficient judgment. I propose to obviate this difficulty by enlightening the people as to the structure and functions of their bodies, the causes of character, and symptoms of disease, and by indicating the proper and judicious employment of my medicines, together with such auxiliary treatment as may be necessary. Such is one of the designs of the People's Medical Adviser, forty thousand copies of which have already been published, and are sold at the exceedingly low price of $1.50, and sent (post-paid) to any address within the United States and Canada.

If you would patronize medicines, scientifically prepared, use my Family Medicines. Golden Medical Discovery is tonic, alterative, or blood cleansing, and an unequalled cough remedy; Pleasant Purgative Pellets scarcely larger than mustard seed, constitute an agreeable and reliable physic; Favorite Prescription, a remedy for debilitated females; my Compound Extract of Smart-Weed, a magical remedy for pain, bowel complaints, and an unequalled Liniment for both human and horse-flesh; while Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is known the world over as the greatest specific for Catarrh and "Cold in the Head," ever given to the public.

These standard remedies have been before the public for many years—a period long enough to fully test their merits, and the best argument that can be advanced in their favor is the fact that their sale was never so great as during the past six months.

Rev. Dr. Ralston, of Philadelphia, is in Eastern Carolina collecting specimens of wood for the Centennial.

The Teboro Southerner gives the following additional particulars of the accidental killing of young Norfleet near that place a few days since:

Hon. Norfleet, a rising member of the Edgecombe bar, while out hunting on Monday evening last, ended his life by the accidental discharge of a gun in his own hands. The particulars as we gather them, are evidently these:

Accompanied by his brother and Mr. Bell in the low grounds of Tar river, near the Hope Lodge farm, he separated himself from them and started along the bank of the river in search of game, saw some bats on the opposite side. Entering the boat with the view of crossing over, he placed his gun on the middle seat with the muzzle towards him. As he neared the opposite bank and the boat driving within inviting range, he leaned forward and pulling the gun toward him, the hammers came in contact with the side of the boat, and the contents of both barrels were lodged in the lower part of his breast. His companions heard his cry for aid and making it for a shout of exultation over a good shot, did not at first come to his assistance. Some half hour or more elapsed before his friends discovered the terrible accident. The boat that held his manly body, writhing in the agonies of mortal wound, was seen floating slowly and calmly down the waters, another boat was soon secured and the delicate and indiscribably painful task of removing the agonized boy to the farm house, and getting medical aid fell to their dutiful lot. Accidents will sometimes happen. We know that I am mortally wounded — let me see my dear mother before I die," said our young friend. An account was given of the accident in the feeble voice of death. Messengers were swiftly dispatched for Physicians and for his mother, who little thought a few hours before how soon she was to lose the prop of her widowhood—how soon the heart of her noble boy would cease to heave beneath the chilling touch of death. The anxious watchfulness of another and the Physicians aid, were of no avail. A few hours of excruciating pain and the generous spirit of Albert Norfleet took its flight, and the lifeless body was tenderly removed to the maternal roof, amid his stricken relatives and sorrowing friends.

The late Death of Dr. J. K. Pinnix, of Lexington.

A correspondent a few days since gives a brief account of the death of this gentleman by his own hands. We add the following particulars contained in the sad affair in the Lexington Dispatch:

The sudden death and sad circumstances attending it, of our fellow citizen, Dr. Pinnix, who died in Lexington, on the morning of the 9th inst., has cast a profound gloom and sadness over the entire community where he was so well known, and generally esteemed.

Having been for months, a great sufferer from complicated disease, both in head and heart, of a most painful neuralgic form, that often drove excruciating that, sometimes even in those dreadful paroxysms, he spoke of his life as a burden; and was under the influence of this torturing physical pain, and intense nervous excitement, that his mind lost its balance, and during this temporary dethronement of reason, he suddenly put an end to his life. In two instances before, during the agony of his suffering, there were slight indications of mental aberration, but not sufficient to excite the alarm of his family or friends.

Dr. Pinnix filled well and worthily every relation of life, and bore himself acceptably and honorably in the duties and responsibilities. He was a man of intelligence, enterprize and public spirit,—of equable temper, a genial nature, and amiable qualities.

He was a good citizen, a good neighbor,—a true friend; a most intelligent and affectionate husband and father, and a christian gentleman. He lived without reproach, and died, we trust, without an enemy—leaving an estimable and devoted wife and one son, a sprightly boy, to lament their irreparable loss, and a community of sorrowing friends, who will long hold in memory shrine his many virtues.

A very large crowd attended his funeral, and a most impressive sermon of excellent taste and singular power was delivered by the Rev. B. Craven, D. D.

DISCOVERY OF GOLD IN ALASKA.—George Holt, a miner and prospector, in a communication to the Secretary of the Treasury, transmitted by the collector of customs at Sitka, Alaska, dated September 20, 1875, reports the observations made by him during a recent exploring expedition in that country. He reports having seen flocks of Carriboo deer, looking like herds of cattle, in the prairies, mountain sheep, moose, dogs, porcupines, rabbits, and a great variety of birds, swans, canes, geese, ducks, and all kinds of fish and game in a wonderful variety. The most important discovery reported by him is bears to be gold in paying quantities, and gives it as his opinion that there is a vast gold field there—in fact, a second California.

Gen. Fred. Grant was called upon at Des Moines for a speech and he said: I am sorry not to be able to make you a speech, but as father has made a speech to-night, I have hopes of doing so some time."

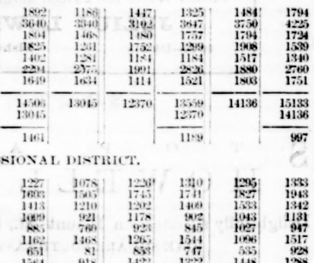
In this calculation all the votes cast in Mitchell county are given against Convention, and all in Jackson and Tyrrell given for Convention.

OLD NORTH STATE HARDWARE AND HOUSE FURNISHING STORE, NO. — MARTIN AND MARKET STREETS, Raleigh, N. C.

I am now receiving my FALL STOCK for 1875, consisting of a full line of

HARDWARE,

Hollow Crockery, Wood and Willow Ware;



Also a large stock of Cooking, Parlor and Heating STOVES. Would call particular attention to those persons who are in want of a first-class Cook Stove to my new design for wood, made expressly for this market, which I have named the

"Old North State."

Five sizes—Nos. 6, 7, 8, 9, 10. The No. 6 I will sell for $20 00, complete with pipe and furniture. No. 7 for $25 00 and other Nos. at corresponding prices. Every Stove sold will be warranted to give entire satisfaction. Do not fail to call and look at the Stoves before making purchases.

Also in stock will be found a full line of

LAMP CHIMNEYS, WICKS, PRATT'S ASTRAL AND KEROSENE OILS.

Having purchased my entire stock at very low prices I can offer inducements to those in want of any thing in my line. An examination of my stock and prices is solicited. Goods marked in plain figures.

Assets over . . . $10,000,000
Surplus, ... 2,000,000

The Manhattan invites a comparison with other first-class Companies as to the following particulars:

The large excess of Assets over its Liabilities.

The small Ratio of Expenses to Income.

The interest account exceeds the claims paid.

Care in the Selection of Risks, shown in the small percentage of Death Claims.

Prudence and Skill in Management.

Justice and Liberality in the Payment of Losses and Dividends.

All its policies are incontestable.

The even and interrupted success of its operations for a quarter of a century.

No portion of the business of this Company has been derved from insuring the risks of unsuccessful companies.

RATES LOW, and the same NORTH and SOUTH.

All approved Plans of Insurance granted, and no unreasonable restrictions imposed.

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL

Life Insurance Company

OF HARTFORD.

Incorporated in 1846.

Total Income during 1874. . . . $10,049,011 10.
Total surplus returned to Policy-holders during 1874, . . . $3,037,872.83.
Average per cent surplus returned to policy-holders in 1874, 40.41 per cent.

This percentage of surplus returned is much greater than that of any other company, and more than twice that of several leading ones. It is the legitimate and inevitable result of care in the selection of risks and high rate of interest received from well-invested assets. As the actual cost of the insurance to the policy-holder is regulated, not by the table rate charged, but by the amount the Company is able to save and return to him from the premium paid this latter item is of the greatest importance. Manifestly the company which is able to return to its policy holders the most surplus premiums, furnishes the insurance at the lowest cost. And this, the history of its policies shows the Connecticut Mutual is actually doing.

Total amount of Surplus Premiums returned from organization to Dec. 31st, 1874, . . . $25,300,707 67
Surplus Premiums are returned annually commencing at the payment of the second premium.
Total amount of Claims paid from organization to Dec. 31st, 1874, . . . $20,300,874 53.

NOON DISPATCHES.

General Telegraphic Items.

MADRID, Oct. 16.—The Correspondencia of this city publishes a letter from Victoria, dated October 14th, stating that Don Carlos had imprisoned Gen. Dorregary and some other chiefs.

The Standard publishes a special telegram announcing that the Turks now hold the District of Zenbier, the last refuge of the insurgents.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—A Paris special to the Echo says the popularity of Thiers is causing uneasiness in the MacMahonists camp. The Times' Paris correspondent says if the ministry is defeated on the question of system voting, MacMahon will form an extra parliamentary ministry under M. Fourtens, which will delay dissolution as long as possible.

BERLIN, Oct. 16.—The Secretary of State, Von Bulow, will accompany Emperor William to Italy in place of Prince Bismark.

FORT MONROE, VA., Oct. 16.—The U. S. frigate Hartford, which sailed from Lisbon, September 19th, arrived in the Roads last night. All well on board.

Miscellaneous Items.

CICINNATI, Oct. 16.—The Eagle distillery at Patonka, Indiana, formerly owned by Bingham county, is burned.

NORWICH, CONN., Oct. 16.—Palmer Bay, worth $5,000, with a record of 23 minutes, 9 years old, fell dead in a race.

HALIFAX, Oct. 16.—There was a storm on Magdalen Islands on the 10th. The schooner Martha T. Pike was lost. The brig Pierre Nolosque, was wrecked on the north beach on the 28th. The crew was lost. The bodies of the Captain and cook were recovered.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

MUNICH, Oct. 16.—The Bavarian ministry has resigned.

RIO JANEIRO, October 16.—The Countess of Eu, eldest daughter of the Emperor, a son.

HAVANA, Oct 16.—Four steamers have arrived here recently with reinforcements for the Spanish army. The government is drafting horses to mount the recruits. The epizooty in a mild form is prevalent.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a special from Berlin, says the negotiations with the Great Powers are in progress for the purpose of demanding from Turkey a guarantee for the payment in full of the interest and the debt after five years.

Bishop Little John's Missionto England—General Items.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16—Bishop Little John sailed for Europe to day, his mission is to inspect the American Episcopal churches in Europe under the appointment of the presiding Bishop of the Episcopal churches of the United States.

An evening paper of this city publishes the following: "Through gentlemen who arrived to-day from St. Pierre, the French colony in British North America, intelligence has been received of a most terrible series of assassination. In a single night and for the purpose of robbery, a whole family, consisting of an old mother, a millionaire named Francois de L'Escale, his son-in-law, Mons. Cartier, and his wife and daughter, and one Folquet, the keeper of the villa, were foully murdered on the morning of the 5th, or late in the night of the 4th inst., at Mr. de L'Escale mansion, situated about half a mile outside of the town of St. Pierre. Mr. de L'Escale never had had the custom of depositing his money in the banks, and it is therefore certain that the burglars and assassins have secured an enormous booty.

Tweed's answer, after protesting against the denial of a stay and proclaiming his right to withdraw the answer should his appeal result favorably, makes a general denial of all the charges. It specifically denies the existence of any conspiracy or combination with the late James Watson, county auditor, to defraud the city or county, and alleges that the county of New York not having been made a party to the action, renders the the complaint defective.

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 15.—An attempt was made here to burn the mansion of Geo. C. Ballou.

In Woonsocket at a late hour an incendiary fire destroyed Woonsocket High School, with a valuable chemical and philosophical apparatus.

Re-Arrangements of Fast Mails to be Made.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The Postmaster General, in compliance with the request of Postmaster Filley, of St. Louis, that a re-arrangement of schemes for fast mails service between New York and St. Louis and the Southwest be made, prior to the first proximo, for all such matter as naturally belongs to the Pennsylvania Railroad, and can be advanced thereby, and orders it to be sent by that line instead of the New York Central and Lakeshore routes. This new arrangement will save to the department the expense of an unnecessarily long haul, and insure quicker delivery of the mail between the East and Southwest, and points on or near the line between St. Louis and Pittsburg, to which closed pouches are sent. It will also in a measure, alleviate the inconveniences and delays now caused by lack of Railway postal car service between Pittsburg and St. Louis. The Postmaster General says he views this matter in a business light, and desires justice done to all.

Bank Statement.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16—Bonds held by the Treasurer as security for National Bank circulation $868,857,212 and for deposits of public moneys 18,782,200; National Bank notes received from redemption during the week 3,381,962. Ex-Senator Pease interviews the President on the Affairs in Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Ex-Senator Pease had a long interview to-day with the President on the subject of Mississippi, including the causes of the difficulties and of the present condition of affairs, and remedies. The President talked freely, and said he was much gratified that the two political parties had effected an amicable adjustment, by which a fair election could be held and peace maintained in the State. Efforts have heretofore been made by Senator Bruce and friends for the removal of four Federal officers in Mississippi, but Mr. Pease has assurances that no removals will be made in that State for mere partisan reasons. Attorney General Pierrepont assured him that none coming under his department would be disturbed.

Run on the Home-Savings' Bank of Boston.

BOSTON, Oct 16.—The run on the Home Savings Bank continued today, but depositors exhibit more confidence. Commissioner Gatchel has examined the bank and certifies it is perfectly safe, able to pay all depositors. Offers of assistance if needed, have been made by several city banks.

More Indian Troubles.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—A dispatch from Portland, Oregon, says the Nantilla Indians have driven off workmen on the Nevada and Northern Tilegh extentension, threatening to kill them if they continued the work.
